

RIDGWAYS OF LONDON

TEAS OF CHARACTER SINCE 1836

Ridgways was founded in 1836 when Thomas Ridgway opened his first tea shop in London. He quickly became well regarded for scouring the world for unique and exquisite teas from the finest tea gardens and then blending these to perfection. Such was the company's strong reputation Queen Victoria and King George VI were amongst its many supporters. Today the Ridgways Tea company continues this tradition and so remains the choice of the true tea connoisseur.
